InnSight Hotel Management Group Hires New Managers

SPRINGFIELD, OR- February 12, 2008- InnSight Hotel Management Group has promoted one manager and hired two new managers to fill positions in two of its Eugene/Springfield properties.

Jamie Wilcox joins the InnSight team as Director of Sales and Marketing for the Eugene/Springfield Holiday Inn, InnSight's full service property currently under construction in the Gateway area. She brings over twenty four years of sales and marketing management experience within the hospitality industry. Ms. Wilcox was most recently a Regional Director of Sales overseeing sales and catering operations for properties in Newport, Gleneden Beach, Eugene and Portland.

Julie Walker is joining the opening team of the full service hotel as Director of Housekeeping. Ms. Walker joined InnSight as an opening team member of the Eugene/Springfield Courtyard by Marriott in January 1997. She began as a front desk associate, eventually working her way up to Assistant General Manager. In October 2000, she became the General Manager for the Eugene/Springfield Holiday Inn Express.

Replacing Julie Walker at the Eugene/Springfield Holiday Inn Express is Dehn Blunt. Mr. Blunt is joining InnSight with over 20 years of experience in the hospitality industry, filling a variety of positions in both select service and full service hotels throughout California and Oregon. Most recently, he has been the dual General Manager of the Hilton Garden Inn and Holiday Inn Express in Corvallis. Mr. Blunt is also a member of the Oregon Lodging Association Board of Directors.

Julie Walker and Jamie Wilcox are joining General Manger, Colleen Arruda, at InnSight's corporate office, which is serving as the Eugene/Springfield Holiday Inn's temporary headquarters until its opening in Spring 2008.
