Medford Marriott Hotels Celebrate 2008 Awards

MEDFORD, OR (March 17, 2009) – It wasn't quite Mardi Gras, but it was a big celebration in New Orleans for the Medford Airport Courtyard by Marriott, the Medford SpringHill Suites by Marriott, the Medford TownePlace Suites by Marriott and the Central Point Fairfield Inn & Suites by Marriott. They collectively garnered an impressive nine awards at the annual Marriott International General Managers Conference held earlier this month in The Big Easy.

Out of eight hundred Courtyard hotels worldwide, the Medford Courtyard was one of seven hotels to be awarded Diamond Hotel status. Marriott Diamond hotels represent the pinnacle of success for guest satisfaction and financial success. General Manager Paul Schmidt was also chosen as a Diamond General Manager for his outstanding leadership of the property. He was one of five domestic General Managers honored with the award.

The Medford Courtyard also received awards for exceptional Local Area Knowledge, Marriott Rewards Elite Recognition and Front Desk Friendliness. By winning three guest service awards, the Medford Courtyard was one of seven hotels recognized as a Guest Service Scores Giant.

The Medford SpringHill Suites, the Medford TownePlace Suites and the Central Point Fairfield Inn & Suites all won prestigious Gold awards. The Marriott Gold award is given to those hotels who scored amongst the highest in their brand for overall guest satisfaction. The Medford SpringHill Suites also won an award for Maintenance and Upkeep; they were rated third highest in their brand.

The Medford Marriott hotels are all managed by InnSight Hotel Management Group, based in Springfield, OR.
